2019 Montana Housing Partnership Conference with Mountain Plains NAHRO

June 17-19, 2019

Billings Hotel and Convention Center

Mountain Plains

Join us in Billings for Montana's premier conference and networking experience. This event is custom-made for policy makers, housing authorities, community development agencies and affordable housing developers in Montana.

This year's event is a collaboration between the Montana Housing Partnership and Mountain Plains NAHRO. The Montana Housing Partnership is a group of housing professionals in business and government across the state, Mountain Plains NAHRO is the regional association of public housing authorities. We will have folks from Montana and a five-state region that includes Colorado, Utah, South Dakota, North Dakota and Wyoming.

A full slate of national, regional and local experts will address a variety of issues that impact the availability of homes in Montana including :

- links between infrastructure & workforce development
- public housing authorities
- housing choice vouchers
- development of apartment-style rental homes
- homeownership

- the relationship between health & home
- community revitalization & development
- national and state legislative priorities
- organizational management
- professional development

Conference registration is now open and early bird discounts are available until May 22.
