

Lending & Education News

From all of us at NeighborWorks Montana we want to take this opportunity to recognize the commitment each of you have had to your clients and the people of Montana this year. We have seen you move mountains to help your clients obtain the help they need to purchase a home in an incredibly competitive market. We have seen you help clients remain in their homes and find resources to help them thrive when they are struggling. The dedication and commitment you have had strengthens our Montana communities, and we are beyond grateful for the opportunity to work with you each day. We hope this holiday weekend is one of rest and relaxation for you. You deserve it!
