NeighborhoodLIFT Program Update

With the launch of NeighborhoodLIFT at the end of October, none of us were quite sure what to expect in terms of response from potential homeowners. Now, in the middle of January and having fewer than 10 loans available, we are in shock!

The disbursement of these down payment funds has gone so much faster than we anticipated, but we have been excited to see all the new homeowners that have been created with the help of this program. This has also opened our eyes to new trends in the needs of potential homeowners who continue to face many barriers to purchasing a home, such as saving for a down payment, as both rental and home purchase prices continue to rise.

LIFT Breakdown:
- The program started October 28, 2019 with $3 million to help potential homeowners
- LIFT is a nationwide program brought to you by Wells Fargo and NeighborWorks America
- Its purpose has been to create educated homebuyers through Homebuyer Education and Housing Counseling, and to help offset the cost of buying a home
- Each household has been able to apply for $10,000
- Those who are first responders, military, or teachers have been able to apply for $12,500
- This money is forgivable over a period of five years
- The program was not limited to first-time homebuyers

In the coming weeks and months we will be working to tell some of the LIFT clients’ stories from across the state, so please watch your email and also connect with us on social media. Their stories are sure to warm your heart!
Save the Date for This Year’s Housing Partnership Conference!

This year’s conference is coming together nicely and we are working to make it the best one yet. Registration is set to begin March 2, so watch for upcoming announcements about conference registration, lodging, and event activities through email or at nwmt.org/2020-housing-conference.
